IMPORTANT PROPOSITION. stould never recognize the bogus coactments of the Missouri usurpers, and defed him to enforce them. The whole scene is graphically depicted

The next morning Gov. Robinson presented to him a written proposition signed by the leading near of Lawrence, stating that if the following course will be adopted they will go into an election of delegates. "Two persons one from each party, selected from each District, to correct the Registry list; to proceed together and register legal voters; the Probate Judges to correct the first lists and an apportionment to be made according to these returns; four Judges of Election, two from each party, to be elected in each precinct; the manes of three of said Judges are required on certificates to en-election. They are exceedingly anxious to have the Free State men commit themselves, but not that they should win a victory. They want We are glad to learn that the Free State men have resolved not to succomb to the syramical, brutal Pro-Shavery emetments, of the neuropers, and not to be dragooned or browbeaten by Bu-chanan's official ent-throats in the territory, but to resist, and defend their inalianable rights to the at extremity. This is the proper manty and miriotic course, as well as the only path of elf must strike the blow," The Freemen of Kanssa are now abundantly able to protect their rights, and a firm, unflinching front will preserve peace and their rights. The bugus authorities will count the cost before again venturing to assail the Freemen; as to the employment of the United States toops that is all gammon. The Government is not immegammon. The Government is not immed-chough to venture upon such a step for the purpose of enforcing the attractous ania of the usurpers. Stanton may back but he will not hite Mark that.

tion, nor followed by any prescribed logal consequences, was a more sullity, to all legal intents and purposes.

In that paper, we were content, for the sake of argument, to go upon the supposition, as one opponents charge, that the first signing was not a cherical error as claimed, but a cleiberate act, and that the Governor was forced to revoke his maction by the tremendain pressure, party and personal, suddenly brought to bear upon him. But we now propose to show that, independently of any regard splich may be paid to the veracity of Col. Bissell, the intrinsic pulsabilities of the case all tend to support the idea, that the affair occurred by mistake in the midst of the burry and confusion always to be found in the Executive office in the last hours of the smith.

We turn with silent scorn from the imputation of enfechled intellect cast upon Governor Bissel, by some, we will not say all, and we rejoice to be able to add, or sizes of his political apponents. Party spirit with all its rancour, has not quite extinguished among them a grateful remembrance of his past achievements, a kindly appreciation of his personal qualities, and a manty sympathy for the locality infirmities with which he has been smilleded. We leave these few ruffanity assistants to the sure rebute of the riverse of the part and the surge of the friends; but such a supposition at the surge and and manty agrants by the ruftes of evidence which are familiar in courts of justice, no other hypothesis could be made to stand for a moment. Mr. Beek thinks the body answers the description of Mr. Wu. A. White, of Madison, who was missing shortly after the State Fair hat Pall, his friends being at once tolegraphed in relation to the subject. Md. Sm., 4th sist.

A Heatrer Bevenaue.—The manufacturers of whiskey in Ohlo and perhaps elsewhere, are using strychniles in the production of that beverage. Among its effects on other animals than man, the "hop cholera," which has proved so istal among the swine creation, is attributed to the caling of the slops from the distilleries.—And the sink, too, have come in for a chance, as it is said that the deaths among them lately in the Sciota river, near Chillisothe, is owing to the drainage from the distilleries into the river. It is also said that by the use of a certain quantity of this virulent poison, mixed with to-hose of the fast to the distilleries into the river. It is also said that by the use of a certain quantity of this virulent poison, mixed with to-hose to this little to produce five perhons of whiskey, while with honest distillation the product is one-haft that amount. The slop from this fifthy compound is found to be fistal to the distilleries has just passed a law making it a state prison offense to use stryohnine in the manufacture of whiskey. Is it surprising that so many of our free drinkers well up and rot in a very short sime?

This precious decoction "Come on, then," said an old man, drawing his knife, "if you want to try that game."

"I did not come armod," resumed Mr. Stanton, "and I have aeither a reverleyer-not howle knife about me—nothing but this, showing a small penknife,) for I thought my life would not be endangered in Lawrence. Cries of Esh!" O pehaw? and 'Humbag!' But it will be useless for you to attempt to reads the authorities, for you will not be fighting with the Missourians now the Border Rofflins, but with the mighty and irresistible Federal Government itself. Yes, the United States forces will compel you to succumb."

Great excitement cusued hereupon—the nordince, hissing, lunghing and it exclaiming, "Gome on with the troops;" "We are ready to fight with the Federal Government; it is the biggest Border Rufflan we have,"

Gov. Robbison at last came forward; begged his hearens to let fif. Stanton proceed, and to answer him when he finished.

Mr. Stanton, having cooled down a little, in recommending, saked his hearens if they would pay taxes to the Territorial (boggs) officers.

"Never!" they replied. "Ne bogus officers shall come about us. We will pity taxes to the U.S. officers, and to he one telse."
